

I need a great home!

Please adopt a rescued pup!

Candy certainly lives up to her name...she's sweet as can be! This Beagle-Jack Russell Terrier mix just turned 3 years old in July and was abandoned by her owner. She's 13 inches tall (at the shoulder), weighs about 20 pounds, has been spayed, is very healthy, and up to date on all her shots. Candy is an energetic lap dog who will be completely devoted to her "people". She gets along very well with other dogs and loves to play with them, but what she loves most is being with you! Although Candy has not been tested with cats inside the house, she has not shown any particular interest in them outside, so it is expected she would be fine with them around. She really loves children and soaks up all the attention she can get. You will not find a better family dog than Candy!
